

ADJUSTMENT REACHED SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS

HIGH SCHOOL TRUSTEES ADOPT RECOMMENDATIONS OF M. A. AND K. C. COMMITTEES

Monday evening at a hearing of representatives of the Knights of Columbus and of the Ministerial Association of Glendale before a full representation of the High School Board of Trustees, action was taken which it is hoped will lay for all time the ghost of the controversy between Protestantism and Catholicism which has for several years stalked at the season when pupils of the High School were being graduated.

The consideration of this matter led naturally to the effort to effect an adjustment which would end this perennial controversy out of which a complaint was recently lodged with the County Assessor against the First Methodist Church of this city. Accordingly a conference was held which led to the appointment of a committee by the local chapter of the Knights of Columbus to meet with a committee representing the Ministerial Association of Glendale to thresh out the matter and see if some understanding could be effected. That meeting was held Thursday evening and at that time an agreement was (Continued on Page 3)

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Miss Edna Phillips was very pleasantly surprised at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Clewett, 526 East Windsor Road, Monday night, in celebration of her birthday. The evening was devoted to games and dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served at the close with May baskets as favors. Those present were: Misses Emily Kopp, Esther Besant, Hattie Tatum, Blanch Cramer, Gladys Goddard, Messrs. Will Marple, Leland Baker, Rutherford Wallace, Albert Hewett, Allen Baker, Clyde Phillips, Mrs. A. M. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mathiesen, and the host and hostess.

FAMILY GATHERING AT ROWLEY HOME

Robert and Eustace Rowley were the center of interest at a family gathering which took place Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rowley, at 305 North Central Avenue, when guests were entertained at a mid-day dinner and for the afternoon and evening. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Rowley were: Miss Judie McKellar and Mrs. Jessie Magee of Downey, Hull Newcomb, also of Downey, Mrs. J. W. McKellar, her three sons and daughter of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Gwin Newcomb of Yucaipa, Mr. and Mrs. William Nance of Sunland, Mrs. Margaret Cawthon of Anaheim, her son and two daughters. The guests had great pleasure in examining the trophies of war brought back by Robert Rowley and the many interesting photographs collected by both sons of the house. They were also entertained with music and greatly enjoyed vocal numbers by Wallace McKellar, who has just returned from government service in Washington in connection with the war department and who is quite noted as a singer.

MOMENTOUS QUESTION

SHALL TELEPHONE PROPOSITION PRECEDE ALL OTHERS IN IMPORTANCE?

Members of the Greater Glendale Development Association will meet in regular public session this evening at the Intermediate School, at the corner of Wilson Avenue and Kenwood Street at 8 o'clock and action will be taken to have the municipal telephone project take precedence over all other questions that have been before the Development Association for consideration in the past several months.

All citizens of Glendale are invited to attend this meeting.
NORTON C. WELLS, President.
C. D. LUSBY, Secretary.

WEATHER BAD FOR YOUNG TURKEYS

J. W. Fillingner of Parkdale Avenue, just across the S. P. tracks, says that as far as he can learn this has been a very fatal season for young turkeys. The unusual and long continued cold weather has caused them to droop and die by the scores. Those hatched unusually early escaped because they had grown past the dangerous age before the cold weather came. He says there should be few fatalities among those hatched from now on.

GRADE SCHOOL BOARD CALLS MEETING OF ELECTORS FOR JUNE 5TH

A meeting of real importance to members of the Parent-Teacher Associations of this city and to all parents and taxpayers has been called for June 5th at 8 p. m. at the Intermediate School "for the purpose of considering and instructing the Board of (school) Trustees on the following subjects: The sale of the Eighth Street school site; the purchase of lots adjacent to the Broadway School; the calling of a bond election to vote bonds for new buildings."

In explanation the Superintendent of Schools stated that the situation at the Broadway School brought about by the widening and improvement of Broadway and the opening of Sycamore Canyon Road had made such a call necessary. The cutting into the school grounds by these two improvements have not only reduced the size of the campus to dimensions much smaller than other schools of the city, but the main building overlaps the street for about ten feet and must be moved. As this is one of the large and growing schools of the city, adequate playgrounds would seem to be necessary. The plan is to purchase vacant lots available in the rear of the school. The Eighth Street site has never been improved with a building and since Tropico has been (Continued on Page 4)

DEMobilIZATION PARTY

Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock the demobilization of the Red Cross branch, which has had its headquarters at the city building on Brand and Los Feliz Road, will take place at the K. of P. Hall. It will be a general good times affair, at which the special guests will be ex-soldiers and sailors, old and young—members of the American Defenders' League and the G. A. R., and any returned service men. Mrs. E. V. Bacon, chairman of the Branch, and her associate officers will have charge. Certificates of honor will be presented to faithful Red Cross workers, and there will be a brief musical program to which Mrs. C. L. Peckham will contribute vocal numbers. Following the program, a collection of war souvenirs brought by returned soldiers will be on display and the floor will be turned over to the young people for dancing. At the close of the evening, coffee and refreshments will be served by a committee of which Mrs. Tiny Hammond is chairman. Mrs. Hammond requests all members of her committee to bring their cakes, coffee, sugar and cream to the K. P. Hall Wednesday afternoon.

LAST COMMUNITY SING

Thursday night is the last Community Sing until August or September and possibly for the year. This latter sad alternative is contingent on raising sufficient funds for the further carrying on the work. The ways and means committee is working on the financial problem now. They are facing a big deficit, which must first be made up and then provision made for continuing the sings. It would be a public calamity to discontinue them for they are a distinct asset to the community life. Members of the committee have sufficient faith in the loyalty of Glendale citizens to the public weal to feel certain the Community Sings will continue after the June-July vacation.

On Thursday night Mrs. Chas. Parker will sing several numbers, among them Mrs. L. N. Hagood's composition, "The Sandman's Song," and all know that Prof. Kirchoffer will be at his best.

MEMORIAL PARADE

THE RICHARD GRIDLEY CHAPTER OF THE D. A. R. TO PARTICIPATE

Mrs. John Hyde Braly, regent of the Richard Gridley Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, is in receipt of an official invitation for that patriotic organization to participate in the Memorial Day services at Forest Lawn Memorial Park on Decoration Day, Friday. As it will be difficult to reach all members of the chapter by letter or telephone, Mrs. Braly is publishing this notice with a request that as many members as possible meet at the parade starting point—Brand Boulevard and Colorado Street—at 1:30 Friday afternoon, prepared to march or to ride in the auto section of the parade, and any who can do so, are requested to communicate with her in regard to the carrying of the chapter banner.

N-C 4 OFF FOR LISBON

LEAVES PONTA DEL GADA AT 6:18 UNDER FAVORABLE WEATHER—GUNS BOOM AND CROWDS CHEER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Ponta Del Gada, May 27.—Seaplane N-C 4, under Commander Read, with the original crew, started at 6:18, Washington time, for Lisbon, 800 miles away. Guns boomed from the ships at anchor and shore batteries when the plane taxied to the jump-off and then rose from the water and sped out of sight. The weather was most favorable. Commander Read spent the hour before the start in tuning the motors.

The plane passed the second destroyer station at 7:38, Washington time, the fourth station at 8:54, and the fifth station at 9:15, which meant that it had traversed nearly 300 miles.

BOLSHEVIKI OVERTHROWN IN PETROGRAD

THE RUSSIAN CAPITAL AND KRONSTADT UNDER HEAVY BOMBARDMENT FROM THE SEA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, May 27.—A press dispatch from Viborg, via Stockholm, received today, states that the Chinese, Lettish and Finnish radicals have overthrown the Bolsheviks in Petrograd and now control the city. It was also stated that heavy bombardment of Petrograd and Kronstadt was proceeding from the sea.

SECRETARY DANIELS REVERSES HIMSELF

RECOMMENDS TO HOUSE NAVAL COMMITTEE ABANDONMENT OF BIG NAVAL PROGRAM

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, May 27.—Secretary of War Daniels has recommended to the House naval committee the abandonment of the big navy program. He insists that the United States should show faith in the League of Nations by eliminating the program submitted to Congress. He said also that Lloyd George and other Allied statesmen had assured him that they are planning to follow the lead of the United States, and that "it is the wiser policy not to enter upon any large construction program until the League of Nations meets." His recommendations are a direct reversal of his stand last December.

NAVAL BATTLE NEAR KRONSTADT

BRITISH WARSHIPS SINK NAVAL VESSELS IN CONTROL OF BOLSHEVIKI AT KRONSTADT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, May 27.—British warships sank the Bolsheviks battleship Novick and forced another dreadnaught out of action and burning in a battle which took place near Kronstadt May 18, according to official dispatches.

GERMANY'S COUNTER PROPOSALS

THEY INCLUDE A DEMAND FOR IMMEDIATE ADMISSION TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Berlin, May 27.—(Copyrighted by United Press.)—Chancellor Scheidemann, in an interview with a representative of the United Press, declared that Germany's counter peace treaty proposals cover the following points:

Germany demands immediate admission to League of Nations. Germany agrees to respect Belgium's claims, but places the claims of France foremost; agrees to restore the destruction wrought in France and make reparation for ruined coal mines. Germany accepts the 100,000 limit for her army and is ready for complete disarmament if other nations will disarm. He said the demand for admission to the League of Nations was based on Wilson's points which called for self-determination and economic justice.

TO SETTLE AMERICAN DOMESTIC PROBLEMS

PRESIDENT PROPOSES CONFERENCES TO FORM NEW "BILL OF RIGHTS" FOR CAPITAL AND LABOR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, May 27.—President Wilson is considering plans for conferences to settle American domestic problems.

One plan, sponsored by labor leaders, is for a national industrial and economic conference to form a new "Bill of Rights" for capital and labor. Another plan involves a conference of capital, labor, suffrage, Socialist and other constructive leaders in an attempt to reach a common ground which would end industrial and domestic strife.

It is the general belief here that when President Wilson returns he will devote much time to an effort to promote a better understanding between capital and labor.

AUSTRIAN PEACE TERMS READY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, May 27.—Peace terms will be submitted to Austrian delegates Friday noon.

HELPED TO INSPIRE

WAS IN BAND THAT CHEERED COMRADES ON TO VICTORIOUS EFFORT

Above is a likeness of Manton L. White, son of Harry E. White, of the Packer & White Studebaker Agency, where he now occupies a desk. He is just home from France, where he spent nine months in the band of Headquarters Company 165th Infantry, Rainbow Division. He went across last August and was in the battles of Argonne Forest, the Meuse River and Sedan. The band was right at the front during these battles and bombs and shells fell all around them. At one time several of the band boys were standing just a few feet away from a gang of mules that were awaiting their turn in the transportation work. A big shell landed on the ground almost exactly between the two groups and exploded. While not one of the boys was injured, six of the mules were killed.

Manton is mighty glad to be back home again and at his old job in the auto agency.

COURAGE AND COMEDY

L. Hisey, employed by a wood and coal merchant who has occasion to travel up and down San Fernando Road in the course of business, had an adventure Monday afternoon which was quite a comedy of errors. As he was forging along in an automobile quite in the ordinary way he saw ahead a party of Chinese and Japanese in an auto from which a gun was projecting. They were driving slowly and it seemed necessary to pass them in spite of the menace of the firearm. Taking his courage in both hands he sailed past and as he did so a bullet just missed him. Quickening his speed he drove forward to warn the speed cop usually stationed on the road of the approach of bandits, but no cop was to be seen. Continuing until he reached an oil station he put in a call for the police and then turned back, met the gunmen, demanded their weapons which proved to be one gun. They surrendered it to him and he led them like Hun prisoners to their captor, Chief Lampert, who took them before City Recorder Lowe. There the testimony showed that the aliens were watching for rabbits and squirrels as they drove along and had no evil intent toward L. Hisey or any other passers-by except the four-footed ones. They had not heeded the fact that they were within the city limits and therefore breaking an ordinance. The matter was explained to them and the scare which they had given L. Hisey, and the offender who had fired the gun was assessed and paid a fine of $10.

IDLE ON ACCOUNT OF STRIKE

R. P. Jodon, of 224 South Louise Street, is taking an enforced vacation much against his will. He has been one of the more than 6000 employees of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Co., but all are on strike now over a matter affecting the recognition of the union. The strike was very orderly the men walking out quietly and nearly all going to their homes at once.

DEATH OF MRS. AYARS' FATHER

Summoned by a telegram announcing the death of her father, L. W. Needham, Mrs. Frank C. Ayars, of 214 West Chestnut Street, accompanied by her husband, left Monday night for Racine, Wisconsin, the home of her parents. Mr. Needham had been in ill health for some time and his death was not unexpected.

ELKS' AFFAIRS

TWELVE NEW MEMBERS INITIATED—BIG PREPARATIONS FOR SUPPER DANCE

At the Elks' Club House Monday evening twelve candidates for membership were initiated as follows: A. R. Townsend, Dr. C. L. Marlenee, Louis A. Hart, Henry Van Pelt, Maurice Healy, Jess H. Flower, J. Hartley Taylor, V. M. Hollister, M. A. Johnston, Frank C. Kendall, W. W. Jordan, Harry J. Montgomery.

Following the ceremonies of initiation a supper was served, and the club orchestra, under the leadership of Herbert Henning, entertained.

Saturday night a hard times party was enjoyed by club members which was given under the auspices of the White Star Patrol. As usual with social affairs there it seemed the most enjoyable party that has been given this season. About 150 were present and some of the old clothes worn were quite suggestive of hard times. At midnight a supper was enjoyed and a two-reel comedy put on by Robert Jensen, who is one of the most valued members of the organization.

Great preparations are being made for the supper dance, which is to be given on the 5th of June, and a "big time" is anticipated. It will be confined to Elks and members of their families and it will be necessary to make reservations for the supper which will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock. A wonderful cabaret program is being planned and prizes will be awarded on "spot" dances, the prizes being furnished by members of the lodge.

Reports of the forty-two departments of work will be given by specialists on these lines and addresses on the vital questions of the times given by Mrs. Herbert A. Cable, Mrs. Seward Simons, Miss Marie Brehm, Mrs. Hester T. Griffith, Dr. B. S. Haywood, Rev. James A. Walton and others with special music by gifted artists and the last evening Tableaux Finale by the Y. P. B.

Visitors are welcome to all the meetings of the session.

SPIRIT OF SACRIFICE

THIS THOUGHT PERVADED BOTH SERVICES AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH SUNDAY LAST

At Central Christian Church last Sunday Pastor Clifford A. Cole spoke, in the morning, on "The Poverty of Worldliness," reading as a scripture foundation for the discourse that part of the sermon on the mount where the Master declaimed against worrying about things of the future. The man who lives only for the accumulation of riches may stand well with the world, but he is the poorest of the poor in the eyes of God and when he faces the judgment will find that all on which he placed reliance in this world has been left behind, and he has sent nothing on ahead of him as treasures in heaven. The speaker spoke in glowing terms of the spirit of sacrifice animating the members of a sister church, the First Methodist, who found such joy in giving that they not only reached their first objective in the great Centenary movement but added to it a larger gift to pay off the debt on their splendid church building which through faith in the growth of the community and their own membership they had built thus largely for the future. They first gave for others in the Centenary movement and then lastly for themselves. It is certainly a glowing outlook for future union of faith and purpose when one Christian pastor so heartily commends the membership of another Christian Church.

In the evening a memorial sermon was preached in which the sacrificing spirit of the soldiers of the Civil War and later conflicts was lauded and lessons drawn for the Christian life. The mothers of soldiers were given their due meed of praise for their heroic spirit in giving up their sons for the good of others and then working so faithfully at home to sustain the cause in which they fought.

ENGLAND IN DANGER

England is now in the throes of a great labor union crisis, in which a strike of 1,500,000 laborers is threatened if the union demands are not complied with. As the government declares the said demands cannot be granted without endangering the country's very life, the situation is very critical. Peace hath her struggles as well as war.

ITALY GRABS RIGHT AND LEFT

Italy seems to be always awake to the opportunity of grabbing something left lying around loose. Not content with claiming the entire eastern coast of the Adriatic Sea, she is landing troops in Smyrna, an Asiatic seaport still nominally under Turkish control with Greece as a mandatory. Italy may yet have to suffer a sharp curbing of her greed for land.

A ROMANCE OF SKY AND SEA

Like a romance reads the account of the escape from a watery grave of Aviators Hawker and Grieve of the British aeroplane that attempted a non-stop flight between St. Johns, Newfoundland, and the Irish coast. They had been in the air twelve and one-half hours, traveling about 800 miles, when continued engine trouble decided them to descend and trust to being picked up by some vessel. They finally discerned in the distance a Danish tramp steamer, the Mary Earl, and made signals asking to be taken on board. They had previously sailed back and forth for two and a half hours across the north steamer lane without sighting a ship. Owing to the high seas, the transfer to the Mary Earl by Hawker and Grieve was very difficult, taking more than an hour. Their plane was abandoned. As the Mary Earl had no wireless outfit, news of the rescue could not be sent to England. An English destroyer took them off the Danish vessel and wirelessly the news to the shore, and soon all England knew of the miraculous escape of these two men, who had been given up for dead six days before. Mrs. Hawker was the happiest woman in England when she received the news of her daring husband's escape.

MEN HAVE LOST DRINKING HABIT

I talked with a popular writer, a native of Seattle, whose name is known in every considerable community. "I have been going back to Seattle every year since prohibition went into effect," said he, "and aside from the great improvement visible in business and the appearance of the city, I have been especially interested in the way in which men have accepted the absence of liquor.

"It seemed at first a hardship. They tried to evade the operation of the law in every way. At first my old-time friends always greeted me with invitations to come up to the office or home to have a drink. Each man was proud of the success with which he could evade the law, and each thought a surreptitious drink, or drinks, the very essential of a hospitable welcome. But as I returned year after year the invitations dropped off. No, it wasn't because they absolutely could not get liquor for domestic use. They were getting out of the habit, that's all. The man who used to get three or four drinks at a bar downtown wearied of taking them all alone at home. After replenishing his stock once or twice he got tired of the trouble and quit. The last time I was in Seattle nobody asked me to drink at all.

"There is growing up a generation that never saw a saloon, and no more thinks it necessary to greet a friend with a drink than to throw in a sandwich with every introduction. Bootlegging? Of course there is. But whiskey at $10 or more a quart, served warm from a hip pocket, doesn't attract as the same intoxicant set forth in glistening crystal, over a spotless bar, and with carefully iced 'chasers.' Of course the trade dies hard.

"I can remember when everybody said that to prohibit open gambling would kill Seattle. The lumberjack and the miner in town for a good old time would raise ructions. The poor gamblers, thrown out of jobs, would starve or bring down wages by competing in the labor market. The emptied gambling shops would reduce rents and beggar landlords. All the arguments that were raised against prohibition later were urged in opposition to closing the gambling halls. And they proved as utterly fallacious in one case as the other. You can't find an intelligent man in Seattle who would vote to re-open the saloons any more than he would to reopen the gambling houses."—Willis J. Abbott in Collier's Weekly.

DEATH OF FORMER GLENDALE CITIZEN

(Contributed)

Prof. Edward L. French died in Los Angeles Saturday last after a brief illness, aged 72, and was buried this afternoon at Forest Lawn. He leaves two sons and a daughter and a large circle of friends, a number of whom are in Glendale where he and his family lived for a number of years. Prof. French and family came to Glendale about 25 years ago and made a home in Sycamore Canyon, building up and developing the property now owned by P. S. McNutt. They immediately took a prominent part in the social life of the community, being connected with the Presbyterian Church, and as Prof. French had come to California from a position in a New York college, he naturally gravitated back to his old profession and became principal of the Broadway Grammar school, in which capacity he served two terms. He was a man of broad scholarship and culture and had the gift of imparting to his pupils knowledge not furnished by the text books. He was a Civil War veteran and for the past 15 years or so had been employed in the treasurer's office at the Soldiers' Home, Sawtelle. Prof. French was a man of charming personality who made friends easily and his cheerful presence will be missed sadly, not only by those nearest to him, but by many others who knew him as a delightful companion and friend.

WONDERS ACCOMPLISHED BY AMERICANS IN FRANCE

The Peoria and Pekin Union Railway, extending between the two Illinois cities named, has long been considered the most remarkable in the world from the fact that with only 10 miles of main line tracks it has 110 miles of side trackage. But the war has changed all that. A Glendale boy who has been stationed for several months at Is-sur-Tille, where is located one of the biggest hospitals in the world, recently sent home pictures of some of the remarkable features of that place. It is the distributing point for 700 miles of radiating railways and though it has but 11 miles of main lines those use over 500 miles of side tracks and 15 engines are kept busy day and night shifting cars and making up trains. Another wonder is the largest bakery in the world, requiring, when run to full capacity, the services of seven bakery companies. It can turn out 1,000,000 loaves of bread a day.

THE LOCUSTS ARE COMING

The State Horticulturist has sent out a warning regarding the 17-year locusts, which are due for a visit this year, stating that great damage may be expected to grain crops, such as wheat, barley, corn and oats, and also to alfalfa. But if these seldom, though regular, visitors are no more formidable in California than they have been in eastern states their two last appearances—in 1902 and 1885—little apprehension need be felt. In those years the locusts were present by the millions and their noise constant and wearisome, but the actual damage done was very slight. In fact, the annoyance caused was far greater than the damage done, and, as far as could be learned, the grasshopper plague in Kansas resulted in more damage in one county than the locusts did in the whole state of Illinois.

OUR BEST ARGUMENT

That which we have seen with our own eyes and our hands have handled, what we know from our own actual experience, that from the days of the Pioneers of this "The best country on earth" on down to the present year of Grace, 1919, "The American homes are demanding the best Sanitary Equipment." Where do they go for information, not to their Doctor or Lawyer, but to the man whose business it is to qualify in the best methods and can explain to them intelligently. I have now finished forty years of actual service in every branch of this important work. A work which spells Health to the Home and community. Come in and let us talk it over.

STUDENTS HEAR PROFESSIONALS

Friday afternoon students of the Art Department of Glendale Union High to the number of 16, in company with the head of the department, Miss Irene Mueller, went to Los Angeles to attend a series of talks, given before a meeting of the Ad. Club of that city at Lincoln High. It was the first gathering of its kind the club has held. While many of the talks, all of which were made by experts in the advertising field, had to do with the commercial aspects of the proposition, others considered the art side, and one in particular concerned High School annuals.

PLAN No. 540

It's a wonderful thing to be able to refer to a beautifully planned, convenient home as your own. It's a greater pleasure to know that you have been considerate enough of your loved ones to make possible a home that reflects dignity and refinement—one that produces an atmosphere of high moral environment.

The plan featured this week is ultra-modern and, built complete—"THE BENTLEY WAY"—for $3,200.00, represents a real bargain.

The photographs of both exterior and interior, with details, have been procured. They are at our office for your inspection, and we cordially invite you to advise with us. We can be of real service and save you money.

Personals
Miss Frances Payne of Orange was a week-end guest of Miss Clara Midcalf.
Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Haskell of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Blake of Fresno were Sunday guests of Mrs. H. L. Redd.
Miss Della M. Echols, of 115 West Elk Avenue, who has been quite ill recently with an attack of bronchitis, is able to be up and around again.
Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Oliver of Acacia Avenue are leaving for San Diego on a business and pleasure trip which will keep them away for several days.
Evelyn Ryan of San Francisco is here as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary O. Ryan, of 419 East Harvard Street. She has a government position in the northern city and is enjoying a vacation. She will be here for a few weeks, and will be glad to see her friends.
News from the home of City Attorney W. E. Evans is encouraging. Both Mrs. Evans and her little daughter have been ill for about a week and yesterday the child's case became critical. The trouble seemed to center in the mastoid gland. A small operation Monday night afforded relief and the child is reported much better this morning. Mrs. Evans is also improving.

Boys of the Pacific Avenue School who are interested in athletics, particularly those who are on the ball team, were at least an inch taller Monday afternoon and inwardly much exalted by the result of a ball game with the team of the Colorado Street School, in which the score was 17 to 2 in favor of Pacific Avenue. The information is first hand as to how they felt for a Pacific Avenue boy turned in the report.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Franklin, of 246 North Central Avenue, accompanied by Mrs. Harrison Coleman, of Eagle Rock, motored to Ventura the first of last week and were guests for several days in the McDougal home. They went via the state highway, but returned by the Camulos Ranch, arriving at home yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Miss Cora McDougal. She and Mrs. Coleman were entertained last evening at dinner in the Franklin home.

Mrs. Flora Pixley and her daughter, Olive, who have returned to their home at 116 West Lomita Avenue, have been suffering from colds since they no longer enjoy the salt water breezes. Mrs. Pixley says the last letter she had from her son, Guy Pixley, was dated early in May. He had received his equipment for return and orders for embarkation, so he expected to soon be homeward bound. She is anticipating a telegram announcing his arrival in New York, or she may receive word that he has been turned back on account of unsettled military conditions in Europe.

DEATH OF MRS. G. MILLS
As the Evening News goes to press word is received that Mrs. G. Mills of South Louise Street, who was stricken with paralysis about ten days ago, passed away this morning.

"RAINBOW" PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Midcalf proved themselves to be delightful host and hostess Saturday evening, when they invited the Glendale boys of the Rainbow Division to their home, 428 West California Avenue.
The house decorations were red, white and blue flowers and the delightful refreshments even also of the National colors. The evening was military throughout, beginning with bugle call at 8:30 and ending with taps at 11:45. As guests arrived, they were each given an identification tag with their name and bearing a tiny service flag. Three companies were formed, each chose from their group a captain and yell leader, and participated in the following games: Somewhere, Over the Top, Hand Grenades, Bombardment, Trench Movies, Smilge Exercises, Court Martial, Mess, and Company Drill.
The "Captains" chosen were Edwin Sadler, Douglas Balthis and Wm. Bode.
The invited soldiers were Edwin Sadler, Hugh Freeman, Holman Midcalf, Stanley Gorman, Fred Burt, Sgt. Pollock, Howard Rockhold, and Frank Littell all of the "Rainbow," Ormond Bradley of the 91st, and Wm. Bode of the Sunshine Divisions.
Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Redd, Mr. and Mrs. Haskell of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Blake of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. George Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Farrar of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Stone of Hilo, Hawaii, Elsie and Mae Church, Miss McPherson, Miss Jackson, Miss Dominy, Miss Quackenbush, Mr. and Mrs. George Midcalf, Rosalie Midcalf, Cleo Helen Redd, Harlan and Norma, Haskell, Miss Bode, Miss Esther Sinclair, Miss Payne, Misses Alice and Clara Midcalf and Mrs. Spohr.

reached. That it might be understood and ratified by the school authorities, two members of the Knights of Columbus committee, viz., H. V. Henry and Peter Ferry, and Rev. W. E. Edmonds, representing the Ministerial Association, appeared before the Board of High School Trustees Monday evening and made certain recommendations based on their agreement.
That the commencement exercises of June 19th should be held in the Palace Grand Theatre, which had been generously tendered for this purpose by the proprietor, Mr. Jensen.
That hereafter when any controversy of like nature arises in the schools, it shall be referred to a committee of the Knights of Columbus for investigation and amicable adjustment before being given general publicity.
That a letter shall at once be written and dispatched to the County Assessor withdrawing the complaint relating to the use of the First Methodist Church property.
The Board of High School Trustees, acting on the recommendations of the joint committee represented by the three men mentioned, voted to hold the commencement exercises of June 19th in the Palace Grand Theatre and to inform church officials that their generous tender of the use of the First Methodist Church would not be accepted. They also accepted the assurances of the committees that there would be no renewal of this controversy and that misunderstandings of like nature shall be referred to a Knights of Columbus Committee as proposed.

SPIRIT OF HARMONY
Glendale, Cal., May 27, 1919.
Mr. Ed W. Hopkins,
County Assessor,
Hall of Records,
Los Angeles, Cal.
Dear Sir:—
This is to advise that I herewith withdraw my protest filed with you against the granting of the exemption, under Section 1 1/2, Article 13, Constitution of the State of California, to the First Methodist Church, City of Glendale, County of Los Angeles, State of California.
My objections were based on the fact that said church was utilized by the trustees of the Glendale Union High School for the graduating exercises for the past few years, and inasmuch as said trustees of the High School have decided not to hold the exercises in said church, their action has eliminated my objection. I would therefore request that you ignore the same in passing upon the affidavit of the trustees of said church, and desire to thank you for the courtesy which you have extended to me.
Yours very respectfully,
REV. JAMES STEPHEN O'NEILL.

NOTICE OF MEETING

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair except foggy or cloudy at night and in the early morning near the coast.

THEY DO NOT LOVE US ANY MORE
Soldiers recently returned from France have quite a bit to say of the growing bitterness shown by both French and English toward the Americans. One whom an Evening News representative talked with recently and who had unusual opportunities for observing this feeling from the fact that he speaks French fluently and understands it thoroughly, gave some convincing reasons for this state of affairs. He said the fault was partly with the American soldiers themselves or, rather with the least refined element, those who came from the mountain districts and from the city slums, who were good fighters, but no diplomats. They rather plumed themselves on the splendid fighting of the Americans, which, in their eyes, saved the French troops from annihilation, and they were wont to act very condescendingly and inconsiderately on trains and in other meeting places of the two nationalities.
On the other hand, the peasant class in France are wedded to the old ways of doing things and impatient of the criticisms of the more enlightened doughboys. All this causes friction. But the upper class of Frenchmen are always exquisitely polite and seem very appreciative of America's efforts in the war. They invite the Americans to their homes and often go far out of their way to do them a favor. As to the English Tommies, according to the young man quoted, they are so supremely self-satisfied and so certain that all was going well when America got to the front, and so certain that her aid was not really needed though welcome in that it enabled the Britishers to finish Heineke just a few days sooner, that they just naturally irritate the Americans continually. The latter know that they fought well, that they took positions from the enemy that both British and French shrank from attempting, hence they match Tommy's tolerant superiority with a good deal of Yankee assurance. This increasing bitterness has been noted lately by correspondents of the big dailies and they earnestly recommend the early withdrawal of all the American forces if this country is to retain the friendship of our recent Allies.

SHOWER FOR MISS BUTLER
Mrs. J. W. Feinstein, of 1234 Viola Avenue, North Glendale, was hostess at a very pretty affair Saturday afternoon in honor of her school chum, Miss Mona Butler, of Long Beach, who is to become the bride of Martin C. Abarta, Thursday, May 29th. Cecil Brunner roses in baskets and vases made the foothill home very attractive.
The afternoon was spent in making useful gifts for the bride-to-be, accompanied by a merry chatter about high school days.
A delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. M. Hunt, and her sister, Miss Loie Hunt. The tables were most inviting with their Cecil Brunner centerpieces and dainty favors.
At the close of the luncheon Miss Butler was delightfully surprised when the hostess presented her with a tray piled high with pretty gifts which will be appreciated in her new home.
Those who enjoyed the afternoon were: Miss Mona Butler, the honoree, Misses May Church, Evangeline Huntley, Margaret McPherson, Wau-nita Emery, Lillian Schick, Irene Mueller, Loie Hunt, and Mesdames Smith MacMullin, Frank W. Parsons, Eldred Marlatt, and A. M. Hunt of Glendale, and Mrs. Lena Page of Los Angeles.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS

annexed it appears reasonably certain that children in that territory can be taken care of either at the Acacia Street or the Broadway School, and the money invested in that site might better be expended on other schools.
The plan is to put the matter up to the electors of the district as to whether or not the School Board shall sell that site and buy more ground at the Broadway School.

The other proposition concerns the Broadway building. Because the city took part of the school property making necessary the moving of the building, damages were awarded the school district to the amount of $3,- 000. Since the damages were awarded labor and materials have so advanced that the $3000 award will not be sufficient to cover the cost and the district will have to take funds out of its building fund to complete the job. It will then have only a patched-up building which in a few years will have to be discarded. The question has arisen whether it will not be equivalent to throwing away $4000 to make this change and whether the wiser plan would not be to vote bonds for a new building and apply the $4,- 000 on that.

Members of the School Board are anxious voters should come out to the meeting to discuss the matter, and that they should be thinking about it in the meantime and making up their minds.

The present enrollment at the Broadway School is 246 and it is likely to increase largely with the development of the district. It contains eight rooms. The last building put up by the district was on the Pacific Avenue campus and it cost $12,- 500. It contains only six rooms. As the cost of materials and labor has increased more than 25 per cent., a rough idea of the probable cost of an eight-room building can be had.

As to the grounds, four to eight lots are available and should the larger number be purchased it would carry the school line to Wilson Avenue.

PUBLIC HEALTH MENACE IN SWIMMING POOLS

A wide variety of diseases have been attributed to swimming pools, including typhoid fever, dysentery,
all sort of skin infections, diseases of the nose and throat, eye infections, notably "pink eye," ear infections and colds of various degrees of severity. From the present day knowledge of the nature and mode of transmission of most of a host of diseases, there is no reason why a long list of infectious diseases cannot be spread through the medium of the swimming pool. In a public swimming pool the opportunity for disseminating infectious material from ill persons, and especially from those ill persons who are apparently well, to those who are healthy is always present. The water supply is constantly receiving the mucous expectoration and mouth rinsing of every bather, as well as the effete matter from his body. Skin eruptions are usually covered by the bathing suit and are therefore invisible. Suits, towels and drainage surfaces are constantly exposed to infection. The chain of transmission of disease in and about a swimming pool is perfectly direct. The problem of sanitation is therefore easily expressed.—California State Board of Health Bulletin.

FIRST PRESIDENTIAL CANDI- DATE IS WET

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, May 27. — The first candidate to announce himself for the presidency in 1920 is "wet."
He believes in free beer and other intoxicants—and would permit two
"souzes" a year under the law.
His name is "Captain Sir Mark Golein, Kt.M.M."—whatever all that may be—and he hails from New Jersey, which already boasts one president.

Golein heads what he terms the "New Party," and allows that his party "will save the union." He's got a platform and everything. And his wife, "Lady Golein," who apparently is getting her husband's boom under way, says he's fighting no party because there is "some good and some bad in all of them."

She dropped into the United Press office here and submitted her husband's name as a candidate, adding privately that she really had hoped he wouldn't win the election but someone had to be elected so she had become resigned to help out.

Then she sprung his platform,
which has a "wet" plank as a headliner. Golein would have "free manufacture and sale of beer, whiskey, and other liquors: six months on the chain gang for convicted drunkards, the family receiving $1 a day for his labor. Such drunkards could only get drunk twice a year—July 4th and Christmas.

Golein says he stands for "the liberty of the people," "reduction of taxation and trade protection," "construction of a merchant marine on a sure and safe basis," "religious, political,
medical and business freedom, with a minimum wage for workers and equal suffrage."

Golein also has unearthed "five large, perpetual, positive sources" of revenue which he proposes to substitute for taxation, and which he will explain "if invited by associations, societies and organizations."

As a solution of the immigration problem, the New Party leader proposes that foreign labor coming here

"for the first two years" residence in our country shall at least be 200 miles in the interior from our coast lines." Golein's idea is to get the immigrant onto the land, instead of
into the tenements.

Old age pensions and free education and homes for the afflicted and poor constitute another platform plank.

"The Irish, the Germans, the Austrians, the Slavs the Italians and others from countries beyond the seas, left their kaisers and kings and came here and helped build our country and sustained our freedom and independence and they and their descendants fought our battles in our past wars most faithfully and honorably and it is our absolute duty to protect them and honor and help them in their endeavors in every way," reads another plank.

No entangling alliances with foreign nations, is the eighth plank, with strict adherence to the Monroe doctrine and the Sherman Trust act.
"The new party will not have government ownership of public utilities, so as to promote safe private investments for our general public's surplus capital," the platform concludes.

PLAN BETTER SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

(By United Press)
SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 27.—

TOOK SLAP AT BRITISH PREMIER

(By United Press)
LONDON. (By Mail).—The "wise guys" at the Foreign Office took a nasty knock at Premier Lloyd George during the recent Paris deliberations of the "Big Four" on the Polish question. When the Teschen coalfields were brought up, the British premier frankly admitted that he had never heard of them and he directed the Foreign Office experts attached to the British delegation to draw up a memorandum on the subject for his benefit. The memorandum was concise and complete, but it started off by saying, "As every schoolboy knows, Teschen is one of the chief towns," etc., and then mentioned that a full description of the coal mines would be found in all British school geographies.
